

An Introduction to Hedge laying Training Course

Course Description

This is a practical two day training course to introduce trainees to the art and skill of Hedge laying. Suitable for those working on estates, gardens and small holdings or in a voluntary capacity.

Content - the course covers

- PPE
- Tools
- Evaluating the hedge and required materials.
- Style
- Thinning and selecting correct material
- Cutting & Laying
- Staking & Binding
- Collecting cuttings leaving site tidy and clean

Venue

At Park Hill Training & Assessment Centre, unless otherwise arranged.

Duration

Two Days — Practical
9.00am—4.30pm approx both days.

Equipment required

Trainees to bring boots and suitable PPE/ outdoor clothing. If the trainee wishes to use his/her own chainsaw evidence of competence must be provided by either an up to date training certificate or City and Guilds qualification.

Pre-requisites

None