

The Application of Aluminium Phosphide for Vertebrate Pest Control

A one day course to prepare the trainee to take the City & Guilds Assessment which is a legislative requirement to buy and use this product.

Who is the course for?

- Professional mole, rat & rabbit controllers
- Groundsmen & Greenkeepers
- Local authority and public utility personnel – parks and gardens staff, sewage works staff
- Land management personnel
- Gamekeepers
- Farmers & Horticulturists.

Course Aims

Participants will be able to:

- Understand what Aluminium Phosphide is and how to use it within the current legislative framework
- Understand when, where and against which target pests these products are used without harming the environment and/or non-target species
- Understand the significance of the product container
- Safe storage and transport
- Know how to avoid exposure to yourself, others and the environment
- Be aware of first aid measures in the event of exposure
- Know how to use both types of application equipment
- Know how to clean the application equipment and dispose of excess product and empty containers
- Deal with spillages or other incidents where exposure to gas could occur
- Keep correct records.

Venue

Park Hill Training & Assessment Centre, LE12 7NG.

Duration

One Day — Classroom & Practical 9.00am—4.30pm approx.

Equipment Required

Trainees to bring Wellington boots and suitable outdoor clothing.

Pre-requisites

None, but associate membership of RAMPS is advisory.

Further Information

City & Guilds — www.nptc.org.uk

Park Hill Training Ltd. Park Farm Park Hill Lane

Seagrave Leicestershire LE12 7NG
T 01509 815534 F 0345 5578 498 email info@parkhilltraining.co.uk

www.parkhilltraining.co.uk

